EMPLOYMENT

Trainee Support Workers

Are you interested in developing a career pathway in one of the fastest growing employment sectors in Australia?

If you are interested in starting or considering a career change, we have an exciting opportunity for you in the local region.

The Murrindindi Aged and Disability Network have secured government funds to undertake a collaborative project to expand career pathways for trainees across the region. The trainees will be supported to complete Certificate III in Individual Support in partnership with GOTafe. This unique collaboration between our local services provides trainees with the opportunity of work placement across local Aged, Disability and Health organisations.

Menziess Support Services is a not-for-profit organisation providing a range of supports to people living in the Murrindindi and Mansfield Shires. We are seeking trainee support workers to join our dedicated team, committed to providing individualised, person-centred support to help people achieve their goals.

Successful applicants must be willing to obtain: CPR, first aid, working with children check, police check, Disability Workers Exclusion Scheme clearance, driver's licence.
