YENDA PRODUCERS CO-OPERATIVE
"Your Partners in Farming"

Economic Recovery and Transition Coordinator

- $98,396 - $119,052 (Plus Superannuation)
- Fixed Term – 3 years
- Usual hours of work: Full-time (flexibility may be available)
- Usual work location: Hume Region (flexibility may be available)

Reporting to the Regional Director Hume – Regional Development Victoria, you will work as part of the delivery team in response to the states commitment to work directly with local industry and communities affected by Victoria's bushfires and support the delivery of a long-term and sustainable future for Victoria's forestry industry – and for the Victorian workers who rely on it.

To be successful in this role, you will have the ability to identify and address issues for stakeholders, and to build mutually beneficial partnerships as well as have a proven understanding of community engagement practices and principles. If you possess high level organising, planning and communication skills, together with stakeholder and engagement skills, then this could be the role for you.

Regional Development Victoria (RDV) is the Victorian Government's lead agency in developing rural and regional Victoria. With a focus on building stronger communities through employment, investment and infrastructure, RDV supports regional Victoria to provide better infrastructure, facilities and services; strengthen the economic and social base of communities; create jobs and improve career opportunities for regional Victorians; and support local project development and planning.

For a confidential discussion, please call Matt Nelson, on 0400 841 732.

Successful candidates will be required to undergo a National Police Records Check prior to commencing employment with the Department.

For further information on the position, and position description, and to apply please visit www.careers.vic.gov.au and refer to 027747.

Applications close 14 June 2020.
