Duty Workers – Circuit Breaker
Casual

- Make a difference to people's lives by being at the forefront of the therapeutic community model
- Share and create positive outcomes of a person's journey to recovery
- $31 per hour plus 25% casual loading

Odyssey House is a place of hope and positive change for individuals working towards breaking their pattern of addiction. At Odyssey House we believe that every person should have the opportunity to change and grow. Our diverse teams work with individuals, families, and communities to reduce drug use, improve mental health, and reconnect people to their family and the community.

The Circuit Breaker Program is a residential treatment program just outside Benalla. The program offers a 6-week treatment experience for residents, enhancing and encouraging individual motivation for personal change through self-help and mutual support.

Who we are looking for

We are looking for skilled, driven, compassionate Duty Workers who want to excel in their chosen career as an AOD professional and genuinely care about their community. Are you willing to work together to make a difference to someone's life?

What we offer

We are committed to creating an inclusive and transparent workplace culture where our people can develop to be their very best. We believe in giving people flexibility so they can be great at work, and at home.

Odyssey House employees have access to generous employee benefits including salary packaging, flexible work arrangements (including 48/52 purchased leave), health and well-being services, and training and professional development opportunities.

The position

The positions are offered as casual contracts and are based in Molyulah (approx. 15kms outside of Benalla).

The key purpose of the Duty Worker position is to act as the first point of contact and provide an appropriate operational response to resident issues. The position liaises closely with staff and focuses on developing effective communication with residents to foster therapeutic relationships and maintain an ongoing atmosphere of mutual acceptance and harmony.

A day in the life of this position includes: holding the staff keys and being the first point of contact for resident issues, facilitating group sessions and managing conflict that arises between residents, supporting the organisation of house activities (e.g. games, music, art), attending hand over meetings, managing after hours petty cash, administering basic first aid and, modelling appropriate behaviours and boundaries with residents.

Why apply?

This is a great opportunity to use your strong interpersonal and communication skills and passion to support people affected by alcohol and other drugs on their recovery journey! Join a friendly team where you are mentored and developed into an AOD professional.

More information

The full position description and instructions about how to apply can be found at <https://odyssey.org.au/work-with-us/careers-at-odyssey/>. Please note: applications will only be accepted via the Odyssey House Victoria website. Please do not apply via recruitment websites or via email. Please remember to include your CV and a cover letter addressing the key selection criteria. Applications close Monday 22 February 2021. Please remember to include your CV and a cover letter addressing the key selection criteria. If you have any questions relating to the position, please contact Andrew Hick, Manager, Circuit Breaker Program on 03 5766 6399 or at ahick@odyssey.org.au.

Our commitment to diversity

At OHV we value diversity and believe that a range of backgrounds brings a variety of ideas, perspectives and experiences that will enhance our effectiveness. We promote a workplace that actively seeks to include, welcome and value unique contributions by encouraging people with disability, Aboriginal Australians, LGBTQIA, young people and people from culturally diverse backgrounds to apply for this position.

Safety screening

OHV is committed to child safety and is a child safe organisation. All OHV employees must undergo Police Records and Working with Children Checks. Any person issued with a negative notice on their Working with Children Check will not be eligible for employment with us.
