Myrtleford Lodge Aged Care is undertaking a new exciting employment/training initiative

Learning on the job as a traineeship, students will undertake the Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing stream) at Myrtleford Lodge.

Students will be supported by a qualified supervisor as they learn all aspects of Personal Care in the aged care environment.

Training will take place which allows the student to complete content in a self-paced environment around their schedule.

Students will have accredited trainers and assessors to provide assistance and support, to complete all aspects of theory and practical components of the course.

Why not complete the training, whilst earning a wage in a supportive flexible environment and begin your career in the health industry.
