Established in 1997, MacKillop Family Services strives to ensure all families are supported to provide children with a safe and permanent home, and the best possible start to their lives. Our vision is that all children, young people and families are safe, thriving and connected to culture and community.

The Victorian Family Preservation and Reunification (FPR) Response is funded by the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing. The response includes an initial, intensive intervention phase delivered through a mobile and integrated approach, followed by a sustained service support phase aimed at preventing at risk children entering or re-entering care. The response will link to, align with and build on existing child and family services within the broader service system providing enhanced continuum of care across Victoria. The FPR team will bring an innovative, wrap around service that will outreach to families with unborn and pre-school children and families with young adolescents.

MacKillop has partnered with the Queen Elizabeth Centre and together we are seeking to fill a
