Photographer/Writer - Full time

The award-winning Wangaratta Chronicle is seeking an experienced newspaper photographer/writer to join our editorial team in Wangaratta.

You need to be a motivated self-starter, with the ability to work within the deadlines and demands of a tri-weekly publication.

A majority of the role will be news and sports photography, with writing and video also key components.

You will need to also demonstrate the following:

- Photographic skill: Ability to quickly capture the essence of stories in a single picture or collection of images, and proven experience in sports photography.
- Time management: Ability to take pictures, write captions, manipulate images and fulfil other tasks within newsroom deadlines.
- Generate ideas: Ability to come up with ideas for news pictures and spreads that provide our readers with a great looking paper.
- Communication and team skills: Ability to work well with other newsroom staff and build strong relationships with the wider community.
- Social media: Able to take video, and able to use all forms of social media for various platforms.

Given the nature of this work, it is desirable for the successful candidate to live in Wangaratta.

If you have what it takes, and can handle the pace of a deadline-driven environment while producing high quality work, then we would encourage you to apply.

Email your resume and application letter to: jzeuschner@nemedia.com.au

North East Media, publisher of the award winning Wangaratta Chronicle, is currently seeking expressions of interest from motivated candidates to join the team in Wangaratta as a cadet journalist.

The cadetship is ideally suited for a Year 12 graduate.

It is for three years, including course study by correspondence from Deakin University.

The successful candidate will learn how to write clear, concise and interesting news, sport and feature stories for our newspaper and associated digital and social media platforms.

We are searching for a budding writer who has the skills, passion and determination to be a journalist of the future.

Candidates must have excellent verbal and written English, sound computer skills, solid general knowledge, a genuine interest in the local community, and an ability to build rapport and networks quickly.

You will need to be well organised, able to work to deadlines, and have strong attention to detail.

Candidates must hold a valid driver's licence, be available to work flexible hours, and photography and social media skills are desirable.

North East Media is a leading independent family-owned media group with a commitment to community journalism.

Applications, including covering letter and resume, should be emailed to Group Editor Jeff Zeuschner at jzeuschner@nemedia.com.au
